 Sixteen-year-old Julius C. J. Langbein was so small and young-looking that the men of his 9th New York Infantry Regiment jokingly called him Jennie. Thomas Bartholomew, the regimental adjutant and a friend of Julius' family, had promised the drummer's mother he would look out for little Julius. In the battle of Camden, NC, on April 19, 1862, it was Bartholomew who needed help when an enemy shell struck him in the neck. Dazed, Bartholomew staggered outside the trench and into the enemy lines. Despite heavy enemy fire, Julius Langbein rushed to his friend's side, guided him off the battlefield, treated his wounds, and then bravely carried him to safety—earning the Medal of Honor. 4 1950 – Tom Hudner Happy Birthday Mike Colalillo, MOH (1877) Thomas Edison invents the phonograph.	5 Happy Birthday Don Ballard, MOH (1782) President Martin Van Buren is born in New York. 12 (1800) Washington, DC is established as the permanent capital city of the United States. 19 1944 – Eugene Fluckey	6 1967 – Angelo Liteky Happy Birthday James Stone, MOH 20 19 1944 – Eugene Fluckey	 7 1941 – John Finn  PEARL HARBOR DAY Happy Birthday Ronald Ray, MOH 14 1944 – Robert Nett Happy Birthday Drew Dix, MOH	8 Hanukkah (1941) The United States declares war on Japan to begin WWII. 15 1967 – Allan Lynch Happy Birthday Lew Millett, MOH	(1823) Monroe Doctrine authorized to protect the Western Hemisphere from European powers. 16 1944 – Vernon McGarity 1944 – Chuck Murray 23 1944 – Melvin Biddle Happy Birthday Jim Stockdale, MOH	(1948) The United Nations adopts the Declaration of Human Rights. 17 1944 – Jose Lopez Happy Birthday Vernon Baker, MOH (1903) Wilbur and Orville Wright make the first flight at Kitty Hawk.  24 Christmas Eve	25 1944 – Paul Wiedorfer  26 Happy Birthday James Stone, MOH 27 Happy Birthday James Stone, MOH	28 (1856) President Woodrow Wilson is born in Virginia. 29 (1808) President Andrew Johnson is born in North Carolina.	30 1968 – Robert Howard 31  New Years Eve Happy Birthday Alton Knappenberger, MOH Jim Taylor, MOH

The only woman in the 33-man group of explorers was Sacajawea. Though not yet eighteen years old the young Native American girl and her infant child helped guide the important expedition. In one important incident after a boating accident she bravely intervened to save important documents of the expedition. Her bravery and dedicated service has been remembered on both a U.S. postage stamp and a U.S. one dollar coin.

"Too many people grow up. That's the real trouble with the world, too many people grow up. They forget. They don't remember what it's like to be 12 years old. They patronize, they treat children as inferiors."

“When (I was) a young man in Tennessee I kept a country school... At noon after the luncheon, which I and my pupils ate together out of our baskets, I would go into the woods and cut me a sour wood stick, trim it carefully in circular spirals and thrust one half of it into the fire, which would turn it blue, leaving the other half white. With this emblem of ornament and authority in my hand, dressed in a hunting shirt of flowered calico, a long queue down my back, and the sense of authority over my pupils, I experienced a higher feeling of dignity and self-satisfaction than from any office or honor which I have held since.” Sam Houston on the joy of being a teacher

He had already been in the Army nearly a year when his unit was attacked on April 25, 1951, by a large enemy force, and his assistant was instantly killed. Alone, he continued to man his position against the enemy charge, leaving his gun only to attack in hand-to-hand combat, two enemy soldiers who broke through his ranks. In that fight he was wounded in the head but ignored his pain, refused treatment, and returned to his gun to continue his valiant defense. When his unit was overwhelmed and ordered to fall back, PFC Gilliland volunteered to remain alone at his gun to protect their withdrawal, continuing to fire at the enemy while his comrades fell back to safety. His body was never found and he was subsequently listed as Missing In Action , making him only posthumous Medal of Honor recipient under age eighteen in history.	1 (1863) The battle of Gettysburg, Virginia begins. On April 26, 1777, a messenger reached the Ludington house with news of the British attack on Danbury, where munitions and stores for the militia of the region were stored. Colonel Ludington began to organize his local militia but the messenger and his horse were too exhausted to spread the word. Sybil volunteered to bear the order for muster and to rouse the countryside. Through the night she and her horse Star rode nearly 40 miles on unfamiliar roads around Putnam County, avoiding British patrols and Loyalists, to spread the alarm. She became known as the female Paul Revere and her heroism was later recognized by General George Washington.

“The young do not know enough to be prudent, and therefore they attempt the impossible, and achieve it, generation after generation.”
Pearl S. Buck

“I believe one of America's most priceless assets is the idealism which motivates the young people of America. My generation has invested all that it has, not only its love but its hope and faith, in yours.” President Richard M. Nixon

THE MEDAL OF HONOR

The Medal of Honor, often referred to as the Congressional Medal of Honor, is our Nation's highest award for military heroism. It is awarded only for the highest degree of valor while in military service against an armed enemy of the United States. Though more than 40 million Americans have served our Nation in uniform since the birth of the United States in 1776, only 3,459 Medals of Honor have been awarded. These heroes are our own unique Knights of the Round Table, men of immense loyalty and patriotism who risked their lives in the defense of freedom, and now continue to give of their lives to promote patriotism and inspire other Americans in the spirit of sacrifice and service.

Since the beginning of World War II only 842 soldiers, sailors, Marines, and airmen have been awarded the Medal of Honor. Nearly two thirds of them died in their moment of heroism. On Pearl Harbor Day 2004, when "Building Blocks" Calendar became available, only 129 of these TRUE heroes remained. To these heroes, who serve to remind us of ALL the men and women who have risked and given all to secure the blessings of liberty, we dedicate this calendar. May God bless them in the coming year, and may....

God Bless America
